Message for the National Ijtema of Majlis Ansarullah Netherlands 7 - 9 July 2017

My dear spiritual children of the Promised Messiah

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

Majlis Ansarullah has an important role to play in the progress of the Jama'at and in the upbringing of our coming generations. If Ansar understand their responsibilities and try their best to discharge these responsibilities, we can rest assured that our future generations will remain firmly attached to the Jama'at and continue to grow in sincerity and devotion. If we tread on the path of Taqwa and fulfil our duty of attaching our future generations to the Jama'at, then our future and the future of our children will be secured.

When undertaking the Bai'at every Ahmadi promises to advance in Taqwa and to acquire the higher moral values. We also pledge to shun falsehood, hostility, transgression, dishonesty, mischief and rebellion. We should invoke peace and blessings of Allah on the Holy Prophet ﷺ and remain faithful to Allah in times of trial and prosperity. We should follow God's commandments, shun pride and arrogance, show meekness and exhibit high morals and have sympathy for mankind. The Promised Messiah عليه السلام says, "Prayer is your weapon and we must hold on to it. The only means of getting rid of sin and transgression is through prayers. People of my Jama'at should spend their nights crying and supplicating before their Lord."

These are the values that lead to spiritual progress. It is the responsibility of Ansar to progress in righteousness so that they can set a good example for their children. The task of Tabligh cannot be accomplished without prayers. It is also essential to recite the Holy Quran daily and learn its meanings. Teach the Holy Quran to your children and get them into the habit of reciting it daily. May Allah enable us all to live by our pledges. Ameen.

Wassalam
